At which time individuals are selected to permanently occupy these positions, then these individuals will be delegated Secret original classification authority from Chairman Macfarlane.

Part D: The increase in derivative classification decisions from FY2013 to FY2014 can be attributed to more accurate estimates of derivative classification decisions made on classified e-mail content. In prior years, the U.S. NRC did not account for an accurate estimate of derivative classification decisions associated with e-mail.

Part G: Declassification reviews were not conducted in FY2014 due to resource constraints. Declassification reviews will be conducted in FY2015, pending the availability of resources.
