QUESTIONNAIRE SENT TO SELECTED ORGANIZATIONS

Please type your responses to each question within the yellow box. The box will expand to accommodate any size answer. If you have questions about completing the questionnaire, please contact Bob Bachman at bobafpe@aol.com or 301-503-5992. Thank you.

1. What is the name, address, phone number, and web address of your organization? [U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, 11555 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD 20852. 301-415-7000. www.nrc.gov.]
2. Briefly, what is your organization's history? [The NRC's predecessor, the Atomic Energy Commission had come under strong public criticism for its regulation of the safety of nuclear power plants. In 1975 the AEC was split up by an act of Congress creating the NRC as an independent regulatory agency.]
3. Briefly, what is your organization's mission? [Its mission is to regulate commercial and institutional uses of nuclear materials, including nuclear power plants.]
4. Briefly, summarize the scope of your entire archive, collection, and/or set of records? [The agency's retains records on its regulatory activities regarding its licensees and policy-making decisions. A list of document collections can be found at <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/doc-collections/>]
5. Are there special archives, collections, sets of records, or focus within your overall archive, collection, and/or records? Check Yes or No. Yes No . If yes, please indicate the title(s) of the special archives, collections, set of records and describe them: See <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/doc-collections/> and <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/pdr/doc-holdings.html>
6. What days of the week and what hours each day are your archives/collections open to the public? [The NRC's Public Document Room is open 7:45 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. M-F except federal holidays.]
7. What is the cost/charge to access your archives, collections, or set of records for adults, seniors, students, and/or active military? Access to the Public Document Room is free.
8. What is the charge per copy for copying materials in your archives, collections, or records? [[For the latest fees and turn-around times, see <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/pdr/fee-schedule.html>]
9. What is the name, title, and address/location of your archives, collections, or set of records that relate to the suburbanization of Montgomery County, MD? [The NRC Public Document Room is located on the first floor of its headquarters at 11555 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD 20852. Since the NRC's mission is to serve as the nation's nuclear safety agency, there are very few NRC records that relate to suburbanization in Montgomery County. The only exception would be documents about the NRC's decision to locate its headquarters in Rockville, the bulk of which were created in the 1980s and 1990s. There are also records documenting the recent expansion of the NRC to a third building. These decisions did influence development of the White Flint area. There is no specific collection of documents related to suburbanization, but individual records may be searched for by the public on the NRC's ADAMS records system at <http://adams.nrc.gov/wba/>.]
10. What is the date range of the materials your archives/collections/records related to the suburbanization of Montgomery County, MD? [1975 to the present.]
