I. SUPERVISION

This office is under the supervision of the General Counsel who reports to the Commission.

II. FUNCTIONS

This office directs matters of law and legal policy, providing opinions, advice, and assistance to the agency. Specifically, the office—

- A. Provides agency officials with legal opinions and advice with respect to all NRC regulatory activities including, but not limited to, the interpretation of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974, as amended, the Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1980, the Administrative Procedure Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982, as amended, and the Energy Policy Act of 2005.
- B. Provides advice on the legal form and content of proposed official actions.
- C. Provides the Commission and program offices with legal advice and counsel on licensing, rulemaking, and enforcement matters that arise in the reactor, materials, and waste safety programs.
- D. Prepares or concurs, as appropriate, in delegations of authority, Orders, licenses, other legal documents, including interagency agreements and contracts, and regulations, notices, and other documents that are to be published in the Federal Register, except for those matters that have been specifically delegated by the Commission to the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel and adjudicatory boards or presiding officers appointed therefrom.
- E. Provides legal advice to management officials, as appropriate, in the areas of employee relations, labor relations, equal employment opportunity, and personnel.
- F. Provides advice and assistance to NRC staff related to petitions for action under 10 CFR 2.206 and petitions for rulemaking.
- G. Takes appropriate action to represent and protect the interests of NRC in court proceedings, administrative tribunals, and in relation to other Government agencies, committees of Congress, foreign governments, or members of the public. (In accomplishing this function, considers the separation of functions requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act and Commission regulations.)

- H. Requests, when appropriate, Department of Justice representation for present or former Federal officials or employees sued individually for actions performed within the scope of their employment, when this representation is requested, as provided in 28 CFR Part 50, "Statements of Policy."
  - I. Prepares legislative material, including draft legislation initiated by NRC, and comments on proposed legislation submitted to NRC for its views in coordination with appropriate NRC officials and serves as NRC liaison to the Office of Management and Budget on legislative matters.
  - J. Drafts agency comments on proposed Executive Orders in coordination with appropriate NRC officials.
  - K. Serves as the Designated Agency Ethics Official for NRC and as the NRC contact with the Office of Government Ethics, the Office of Personnel Management, and the Department of Justice with respect to matters relating to conflicts of interest and ethical conduct, and provides advice and training to agency personnel on ethics issues, pursuant to ethics statutes and regulations, principally the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Executive Order 12731, 5 U.S.C. Sections 7321–7326, 18 U.S.C. Sections 201-299, and 5 CFR Parts 2634–2641 and 5801.
  - L. Provides the agency with legal advice and opinions on acquisition matters, including agency procurement contracts, placement of work at Department of Energy national laboratories, other interagency agreements to acquire supplies and services, grants and cooperative agreements.
  - M. Provides legal advice to the Office of Administration on clearances related to 10 CFR Part 10, "Criteria and Procedures for Determining Eligibility for Access to Restricted Data or National Security Information or an Employment Clearance," and 10 CFR Part 11, "Criteria and Procedures for Determining Eligibility for Access to or Control over Special Nuclear Material."
  - N. Provides legal advice to the Chief Financial Officer on user fees and matters pertaining to the use of appropriated funds.
  - O. Provides the agency with legal opinions and advice in connection with the administration of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, and performs other related duties as contained in 10 CFR Part 7, "Advisory Committees."

- P. Provides the agency with legal opinions and advice in connection with the administration of the Paperwork Reduction Act, the Congressional Review Act, the Freedom of Information Act, and the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, and performs other related duties as contained in 10 CFR Part 9, "Public Records," Subparts A and B.
  - Q. Provides legal advice to the Deputy Executive Director for Corporate Management on information technology matters.
  - R. Reviews and directs intellectual property law activities, including patent, trademark, copyright, and proprietary matters.
  - S. Provides the Commission with legal opinions and advice in connection with the administration of the Government in the Sunshine Act and performs other related duties as contained in 10 CFR Part 9, Subpart C, "Government in the Sunshine Act Regulations."
  - T. Represents the NRC staff in public hearings conducted in conjunction with reactor, materials, and waste licensing and in connection with enforcement actions.
  - U. Carries out responsibilities under the Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act of 1986, 31 U.S.C. Sections 3801-812, and the Commission's implementing regulations in 10 CFR Part 13, "Program Fraud Civil Remedies."
  - V. Provides professional oversight of the regional counsel, who report directly to their respective Regional Administrators, communicates with regional counsel as point of contact between the regional offices and the Office of the General Counsel, provides advice to regional counsel as needed regarding their duties in providing or coordinating legal services to the regional offices in areas including reactor and materials licenses, inspection and enforcement activities, contracts, personnel and labor relations, Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy Act and ethics; and may request the assistance of regional counsel in the conduct of administrative hearings before the Commission, Atomic Safety and Licensing Boards, and presiding officers.
  - W. Performs any other functions assigned by the Commission.

III. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO THE GENERAL COUNSEL

The General Counsel is authorized and directed to take any action necessary to carry out the functions and responsibilities assigned to the General Counsel by this or other official directives or communications, subject to the limitations they may prescribe. Delegations of authority for specific actions and applicable limitations are contained in NRC management directives covering broad functional areas.

IV. REDELEGATION OF AUTHORITY BY THE GENERAL COUNSEL

- A. The General Counsel may, except where expressly prohibited, redelegate to others authority delegated to the General Counsel by this or other official directives or communications, subject to the limitations stated below and to other stipulations the General Counsel may deem necessary.
- B. The General Counsel shall send a memorandum specifying the redelegation to the Office of the Secretary, with a copy to the Executive Director for Operations and the Chief Human Capital Officer.
- C. The General Counsel shall maintain a file of all redelegations.

V. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE AND INTERNAL ASSIGNMENTS

The Office of the General Counsel includes the Deputy General Counsel, the Solicitor, the Program Support Branch, the Associate General Counsel for Licensing and Regulation, and the Associate General Counsel for Hearings, Enforcement, and Administration. A link to the organization chart on the OGC web site and a statement of functions of the subdivisions of the office are presented in Handbook 9.7, Sections I and II.

I. ORGANIZATION CHART

The organization chart for the Office of the General Counsel (OGC) is available at http://www.internal.nrc.gov/ogc/pdf/OGC\_OrgChart.pdf.

II. DESCRIPTION OF FUNCTIONS

A. General Counsel

Supervises and directs the performance of all legal and administrative functions necessary to carry out the assigned responsibilities of the office, including the establishment of the internal organization and its policies and procedures, as required, to manage effectively the work of each division.

B. Deputy General Counsel

1. Supervises and directs the performance of legal and administrative functions necessary to carry out the responsibilities of the office, including the establishment of the internal organization and its policies and procedures, as required, to manage effectively the work of each division, as directed by the General Counsel.
2. Acts for the General Counsel when the General Counsel is absent.

C. Solicitor

1. Assists the General Counsel in his or her role as chief legal officer of and the legal advisor to NRC, with primary responsibility in matters involving the supervision of litigation in courts of law.
2. Represents NRC in Court of Appeals litigation and in conjunction with the Department of Justice in other Federal courts.
3. Provides counsel to NRC employees called to testify concerning the exercise of their official duties in cases in which NRC is not a party.
4. Advises the Commission on litigation implications of proposed actions; relatedly, coordinates with the Office of Commission Appellate Adjudication on significant or novel legal issues and on matters reasonably anticipated to be appealed to the Federal courts.

D. Program Support Branch

1. Provides program analysis and direction of program support activities for OGC.
2. Is responsible for office program development and evaluation in the areas of budgeting and resource utilization, personnel management, and organization planning and analysis.
3. Provides office services, including human resources, recruitment, training, information technology, equipment, space, correspondence control, mail and records control; and maintains the law library; and performs legislative reference service functions.

E. Associate General Counsel for Hearings, Enforcement and Administration and the Associate General Counsel for Licensing and Regulation

1. Participate with the General Counsel in directing and supervising all phases of the work within their purview.
2. The Associate General Counsels have full authority to make decisions and take final action on behalf of the General Counsel within the framework of the policies established by the General Counsel.

F. Divisions in the Office of the General Counsel

1. A division is headed by an Assistant General Counsel, who reports to an Associate General Counsel.
2. The Assistant General Counsels for Administration; High-Level Waste, Fuel Cycle and Nuclear Security; Legal Counsel, Legislation and Special Projects; Materials Litigation and Enforcement; New Reactor Programs; Operating Reactors; and Reactor and Materials Rulemaking assist the General Counsel and Associate General Counsels in developing legal policy in areas of assigned responsibility and in rendering appropriate legal assistance.
3. Each Assistant General Counsel has authority to take final action on all legal matters arising in the areas of assigned responsibility within the framework of the policies established by the General Counsel, except that all matters to be referred to the Commission or the Executive Director for Operations will be subject to review by the General Counsel, Deputy General Counsel, or an Associate General Counsel.

4. Each division provides interpretations of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended; the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974, as amended; and other sources of authority for NRC officials in matters relating to the respective functions and responsibilities of the division, and specifically—
