Thank you Leo,

I noticed that for the ML18061A129 the release date in ADAMS is 3/12/18 and for ML18065A055 the release date is 3/14/18. In order to post these on the public website they have to be official records, which they are and they have to be replicated – since the release date is set for next week, they have not been replicated and we would not be able to post them.

If you can get the release dates changed for today's date or possibly tomorrow, that should fix the problem.

Let me know.

Thanks,
Tomas
