---

Mr. Parsons,

Thank you for your email. As you know, we have been contacting the invited Tribes by phone, email, and letters to establish the best date for the webinar. Based on the input we received earlier this week from the invited Tribes, we have scheduled two webinars, one on June 1st and another on June 4th, to best accommodate the participation of the invited Tribes. Attached is a courtesy copy of the invitation that I signed yesterday. We informed the Lower Brule Tribe of these webinar dates yesterday in our invitation to them to participate in the survey approach. In order to determine how best to proceed, we request that you let us know as soon as possible, preferably by the end of the day today, whether the Oglala Sioux Tribe can participate in one of the scheduled dates for the webinars.

Thanks,

Cinthya

Hello Mr. Parsons,

Attached you will find an electronic copy of the NRC's invitation to participate in a webinar and teleconference regarding the Dewey-Burdock in situ uranium recovery project in Fall River and Custer Counties, South Dakota. A hardcopy will be provided by mail. The NRC staff would greatly appreciate a response as to which proposed date and time works best for your schedule by Tuesday, May 22, 2018.

Additionally, the NRC and contractor staff plan to contact you by phone on Monday, May 21, 2018 to follow-up with you regarding this project.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have.

Regards,
