Thank you, Ms. Román. It appears the Oglala Sioux Tribal representatives (Mr. Kyle White and Mr. Lance Rom) will be able to attend the session on the 4th. Also, Mr. Stills and myself will likely try to connect on either the 1st or 4th as well.

Subject: [Response/Webinar Invitation]: NRC's Proposed Dates for Scheduling a Webinar and Teleconference Regarding the Dewey-Burdock ISR Project

Mr. Parsons,

Thank you for your email. As you know, we have been contacting the invited Tribes by phone, email, and letters to establish the best date for the webinar. Based on the input we received earlier this week from the invited Tribes, we have scheduled two webinars, one on June 1st and another on June 4th, to best accommodate the participation of the invited Tribes. Attached is a courtesy copy of the invitation that I signed yesterday. We informed the Lower Brule Tribe of these webinar dates yesterday in our invitation to them to participate in the survey approach. In order to determine how best to proceed, we request that you let us know as soon as possible, preferably by the end of the day today, whether the Oglala Sioux Tribe can participate in one of the scheduled dates for the webinars.

Thanks,

Cinthya
