General Comment

Dear Reader:

I grew up in Miami in the 1960s and 1970s and I remember a beautiful and pristine Everglades, Florida Bay and Biscayne Bay. Since Turkey Point was given a license to pollute without regard to the environment I have seen the slow death of a once beautiful paradise. People do not want to come here anymore because of toxic algae blooms, sick fish and dying coral reefs.

Please see a recent article where experts are saying..."Florida Power & Lights cleanup of polluted water seeping from its Turkey Point nuclear plants cooling canals will take more than 60 years, not five or 10 years as the company has stated, a hydrologist said Thursday..."

FPL is looking for a 20-year license extension - the time to stand up and say NO is NOW! Please do NOT grant any extension to this horrible experiment and make FPL clean up the mess and invest in clean energy.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.
