

License Amendment Data Analysis

- As part of Delivering the Nuclear Promise, the Owners Groups looked for areas in which they could develop generic products similar to the TSTF process
  - All licensee submittals in 2013 through the first quarter of 2016 were evaluated and categorized
  - A total of 16,798 submittals were reviewed

>1/3 FFD electronic submittals

On-going industry and NRC review

License Amendment Data Analysis

- 9% of the total were related to License Amendment Requests (LARs)
  - Submittals, RAI responses, Supplements, etc.
  - 731 LARs
  - 711 RAI responses
  - 52 withdrawals
- Each LAR was categorized by purpose

License Amendment Data Analysis

2013-1Q2016
 LAR by Type of Request

License Amendment Data Analysis

- Conclusion
  - The TSTF Traveler process remains important to the industry and the NRC
    - > 1,000 NRC review hours on travelers in 2018 ($284,000)
    - Reduced staffs and retirements in industry and NRC increase the usefulness of generically prepared products