Dear Mr. Garrow:

On June 22, 2018, we received your application for a new radiography license dated March 26, 2018. We reviewed the application and discussed the deficiencies with you on July 13, 2018 via a telephone conference and then sent you a letter requesting for additional information. After you have completed a Radiation Safety Officer training, on July 31, 2018, you called and informed us that you would like to withdraw the application due to your company financial matters. Based on our policy, we will need a request to withdraw the application in writing. We contacted and discussed the status of the application with you and your office manager, Ms. Heather Garrow, by telephone on September 5, 2018 and requested for a response. As of today, we have not received a response from you regarding our letter dated July 13, 2018 or the letter requesting for withdrawal of the application.

Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 30.33 states, in part, that an application for a specific license will be approved if: (1) the application is for a purpose authorized by the Atomic Energy Act, (2) the applicant's proposed equipment and facilities are adequate to protect health and minimize danger to life or property, (3) the applicant is qualified by training and experience to use the material for the purpose requested in such manner as to protect health and minimize danger to life or property, and (4) the applicant satisfies any special requirements contained in Parts 34 and 37.

10 CFR 30.9 states, in part, that information provided to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (Commission) by an applicant for a license or by a licensee or information required by statute or by the Commission's regulations, orders, or license conditions to be maintained by the applicant or the licensee shall be complete and accurate in all material respects.

10 CFR 30.32(b) states that the Commission may at any time after the filing of the original application, and before the expiration of the license, require further statements in order to enable the Commission to determine whether the application should be granted or denied or whether a license should be modified or revoked.

10 CFR 30.63 states, in part, that the Commission may obtain an injunction or other court order to prevent a violation of the provisions of: (1) the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, (2) Title II of the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974, as amended, or (3) a regulation or order issued pursuant to those Acts. Furthermore, the Commission may obtain a court order for the payment of a civil penalty imposed under section 234 of the Atomic Energy Act for violations of: (1) Sections 53, 57, 62, 63, 81, 82, 101, 103, 104, 107, or 109 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, (2) Section 206 of the Energy Reorganization Act, (3) any rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant to the sections specified in 10 CFR 30.63(b)(1)(i), or (4) any term, condition, or limitation of any license issued under the sections specified in 10 CFR 30.63 (b)(1)(i).

10 CFR 30.64 states, in part, that Section 223 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, provides for criminal sanctions for willful violation of, attempted violation of, or conspiracy to violate, any regulation issued under sections 161b, 161i, or 161o of the Act. For purposes of section 223, all the regulations in part 30 are issued under one or more of sections 161b, 161i, or 161o.

Please provide a response to our letter dated July 13, 2018 or provide a request in writing for withdrawal of your application. We request that you submit a signed written response to this letter by September 18, 2018. Please reference Mail Control No. 609186 in your response to facilitate proper handling of correspondences in our office. For your convenience, you could fax the letter for withdrawal of the application to 630-515-1078 or scan as a pdf and email to frank.tran@nrc.gov.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 630-829-9887 or frank.tran@nrc.gov.

In accordance with 10 CFR 2.390 of the NRC's "Rules of Practice," a copy of this letter will be available electronically for public inspection in the NRC Public Document Room or from the NRC's Agencywide Documents Access and Management System (ADAMS), accessible from the NRC Web site at <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/adams.html>.
