NRC Schedules Regulatory Conference with Providence Alaska Medical Center

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission will meet with officials from Providence Alaska Medical Center of Anchorage, Alaska, on Dec. 17, to discuss four apparent violations identified by the NRC during a special inspection.

The meeting will begin at noon Central Time at the NRC's Region IV office at 1600 East Lamar Blvd., Arlington, Texas, and is open to public observation. NRC officials will be available to answer questions from the public following the business portion of the meeting. The public will also be able to observe the meeting and ask questions via a special webinar.

After registering, a confirmation e-mail will be sent with details for joining the webinar via computer or mobile device. In the event of technical difficulties, a phone bridge can be accessed by calling 888-390-0679, passcode 9937022.

The purpose of the pre-decisional enforcement conference is to discuss the violations identified in a Nov. 2, NRC inspection report. No decision on the final safety significance of the violations or any NRC actions will be made at the meeting.
