Good Morning Robin,

At this time we are not planning on any additional stress test rooms. There has been talk of a remodel which would possibly include a new stress test room, but that would probably be a couple years out. Thank you for checking.

Happy New Year!

Respectfully,

Good Morning Jasen,

I am processing your request to remove the stress lab from your license. I don't need anything additional to do this, just wondering if you needed to add a new lab to replace the one that you removed, or have you stopped this activity? If you do, please send me a new facility diagram under the commander's signature to tie down to your license.

Regards,
