PART I.D -- COMMENTS

As you may be aware, the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 abolished the Atomic Energy Commission. In its place, Congress split the promotional and regulatory duties as to nuclear power between the Department of Energy and the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, respectively. Although we don't know the particular subject matter(s) of the records you are interested in, you may wish to avail yourself of the various resource and reference materials available through the Department of Energy's website, <https://www.energy.gov/management/office-management/operational-management/freedom-information-act>, or submit a FOIA request to the Department of Energy. You may submit a FOIA request electronically through this website, or via fax to (202) 585-0575, or by mail to FOIA Requester Service Center, 1000 Independence Avenue, S.W., Mail Stop MA-46, Washington, D.C. 20585.
