Attention: Mr. M. A. Guhin

Gentlemen:

On August 25, 1977, a Nuclear Regulatory Commission License was issued to Asiatic Petroleum Corporation under NRC License No. XB-31-833 expiring September 1, 1981. Effective May 1, 1979, the name of Asiatic Petroleum Corporation was changed to Scallop Corporation. In this connection, we enclose a letter from A. F. Gerald, Vice President and General Manager, Scallop Materials Services, detailing the nature and reason for the change in name.

Please advise us if we will now require a new license, and amendment thereto or if we may continue to use the current license while annotating our shipping documents Scallop Materials Services, a Division of Scallop Corporation (formerly Asiatic Petroleum Corporation). In the event that a new application or amendment is required please send us the necessary forms.

Your prompt attention to this matter will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

SCALLOP MATERIALS SERVICES
