Dear Mr. Pickard:

This is in reply to your letter of June 7, 1979 to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission about your product, Bondurment, a cementitious grout. Nuclear power plants are built by construction firms doing work for electric utilities, not for the NRC. We suggest that you contact directly such utilities or their construction contractors or architect-engineers about your product.

Sincerely,

Harold R. Denton, Director
Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation
