Dear Mr. Gradle:

On behalf of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, I am taking this opportunity to express my appreciation for the all-out effort by AT&T in coordinating the installation of our Emergency Communications System for reactor and fuel facility sites.

I believe this effort was a model of industry/government cooperation. Our objective, a dedicated system for immediate notification of nuclear incidents and continuous emergency communications, was reached one month ahead of schedule.

I will also appreciate your conveying our thanks to the appropriate Bell System and independent telephone companies for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Hendrie
