Dear Mr. Johnson:

I am sorry that I was not able to get back to you on the telephone the other day when you first called me. I do, however, have your letter of June 5 and your very kind and complimentary invitation to address the National Wholesale Druggists' Association annual meeting this coming November.

It is a very attractive offer, and it would be an honor to be a speaker in the distinguished group that will have there. However, I am afraid that I must decline. I have made a number of commitments for travel, both foreign and domestic, in that period near the end of the year, and I am sorry to say that I would not be available in the November 3-8 period.

Thank you again for your invitation and my very best wishes for a pleasant and successful meeting.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Hendrie
