Attention: Mr. Uldis Potapovs, Chief
Vendor Inspection Branch

Gentlemen:

Black & Veatch has received your letter of April 2, 1979 transmitting the Quality Assurance Program Inspection Report conducted by R. H. Brickley on March 12-16, 1979.

We have examined the letter, notice of deviation and inspection report and do not find any information that we consider proprietary. In accordance with the rules of practice of the commission, we have no objections to the documents being placed in the Commission's Public Document Room.

Our management is currently reviewing the Notice of Deviation to provide the comprehensive response required by your letter. A response to Notice of Deviation will be provided prior to May 2, 1979 to meet the requirements.

Very truly yours,

BLACK & VEATCH

P. J. Adam
