Dear Mr. Duscha:

Thank you for your letter of June 25th and the kind invitation to speak at The Conference for Journalists on the Energy Crisis, September 17-20, 1979.

The subject matter of the conference is, of course, not only of extreme importance, but one in which I would be most pleased to participate. However, I find that I am presently scheduled to be out of the country attending an international symposium at that time.

Please accept my appreciation for the invitation and best wishes for a most successful meeting.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Hendrie
