Dear Mrs. Wallace:

We were all deeply saddened to learn of the death of your husband, Jay. For myself, my fellow Commissioners, and on behalf of the entire Nuclear Regulatory Commission staff, we all extend to you and your family our heartfelt sympathy during your bereavement.

Jay was greatly respected as a manager and as a person. His warm feeling for people, coupled with his integrity and strong will to provide professional as well as personal advice to others, are characteristic of the fine traits he possessed.

For myself, I am pleased that I had the pleasure of working directly with Jay on a number of occasions. His presence will be surely missed by those who worked closely with him and those who knew him personally.

If there is any way in which I can be of assistance in the weeks ahead, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Hendrie
