

2205 N. Graham Ave.
Oklahoma City, Okla.
February 14, 1980

Secretary of the Commission
NRC, Docketing and Service Branch
Washington, D. C. 20555

Gentlemen:

Current emergency evacuation plans for the Black Fox Power Plant at Inola, Oklahoma are not adequate enough to protect our citizens. Any possibility of a meltdown would be such an extremely serious danger that a 2½ mile radius evacuation area is totally ridiculous.

Please schedule a public meeting in the area to discuss and give further consideration to this subject.

Sincerely,

Tom Moore
Tom Moore

Acknowledged by card 2/25/80