Dear Mr. Collins:

The Babcock & Wilcox Company Nuclear Training Center proposes to conduct a Reactor Operator Startup Training Program and Startup Certification based on an operating examination given at the end of the course of instruction. The Babcock & Wilcox PWR simulator would be utilized for this examination. The minimum course of instruction that the trainee will have undergone is defined in Attachment I entitled "Reactor Startup Certification".

The operating examination for reactor startup certification will be administered in accordance with Attachment II entitled "Conduct Of Reactor Startup Examination."

It is requested that you review the program and procedure and forward your comments to me regarding it's applicability as to the intended purpose.

Very truly yours

Norman S. Elliott
Manager, Nuclear Training
