Dear Sir:

The more I read about the 'Harrisburg Nuclear Power Plant' incident, the more aggravated I become as to the grade of ineptency employed.

Some say the mishandling of all the safeguards might have been intentional and possibly sabotage.

I believe there should be a mandatory internal program set up to screen all potential employees and weed out the incompetents, James Fonda followers, leftist leaners, and any opponents of Nuclear Power.

This would only be "common sense".
I look forward most anxiously to receiving
