Termination

Dear Sirs:

The purpose of this correspondence is to request a License Amendment indicating a change in ownership of licensed materials and activities. Jane Phillips Memorial Episcopal Hospital has acquired the ownership of the assets of Radiological Services, Inc. The paper transaction is scheduled to go into effect June 1, 1989. We will try to supply the information required by Information Notice No. 89-25.

- 2A. The name of the old owner is Radiological Services, Inc. License No. 35-10120-01. The legal name of the new owner will be Jane Phillips Memorial Episcopal Hospital, Bartlesville, Oklahoma.
- 2B. There will be no change in personnel named in the existing license.
- 2C. The physicians and personnel representing the seller will continue to provide health care services. This will include radiation therapy using the Cobalt-60 teletherapy device.
- 2D. The transaction entails a transfer of ownership of assets for cash and other considerations.
- 2E. There are no changes planned for organization, location, facility, equipment, procedures or personnel.

There will be no change in personnel named in the existing license.

- 2G. At the time of transfer all surveillance items and records including radioactive material inventory and accountability requirements are current. These records and evaluations include: equipment calibrations, leak tests, radiation surveys, and others.
- 2H. The facility being transferred does not contain any measurable removable contamination. There is no necessity for decontamination plans.
- 2J. There will be no transfer of health care activities. The present physicians providing health care will continue to do so.
- 2K. Jane Phillips Memorial Episcopal Hospital will abide by all constraints, conditions, requirements, representations, and commitments expressed and existing in the license.

A check for $120 has been included with this correspondence to cover the cost of Amendment Evaluation.

Sincerely,

David S. Gooden, Ph.D.
Radiological Physicist
