Consumers Power Company and its contractors have reviewed the copies of reports of inspection transmitted by your letter of August 22, 1975. It has been determined that these reports do not contain information which we or our contractors believe to be proprietary; therefore, Consumers Power Company will not request that any of the transmitted information be withheld from public disclosure. However, we have noted that inspection report #999-34/72-2 does contain information on equipment of other licensees (Tennessee Valley Authority and Toledo Edison Company) and we recommend that these licensees be given opportunity to review this report prior to its public release.
