Marubeni Ref ZH0077

Dear Mrs. Wright:

With respect to the above subject, we hereby request the extension of Export License XSNM01522, copy of which is attached to this letter. The reason for the extension is due to delayed delivery of special nuclear materials from National Bureau of Standard, Dept. of Commerce. We also enclose copy of above mentioned letter by N.B.S.

Your kind and special attention to this request will be highly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Okuda:

The shipment of special nuclear materials (SNM's) requires more time to process than the shipment of our regular SRM's. The procedures for obtaining an export license are time consuming, thus making it impossible to ship materials within six weeks from receipt of order. Normally, it takes six to twelve months to process an SNM order. All shipments must comply with the existing regulations pertaining to the material at the time of shipment and also the availability of the materials.

In reference to your order ZH0077, the items requested are being shipped to you during the week of February 17, 1980. We regret any inconvenience any delay has caused your operation; however, the constraints of the system do not permit more.

Yours truly,
