Gentlemen:

Subject: Inspection 50-219/80-03

This refers to your letter dated June 10, 1980, in response to our letter dated May 19, 1980.

With respect to Item A of your letter, based on a telephone discussion between Mr. R. L. Nimitz of this office and Mr. D. Turner of your staff on June 20, 1980, Item A of Appendix A to our letter is correct as stated. Additionally, with respect to Item D of your letter, and as discussed in the same conversation, full compliance for this item was achieved on January 28, 1980. Also, with respect to Item D, and based on this same conversation, we understand the reinstruction of the technicians included the topic of disciplinary action for failure to follow procedures.

Thank you for informing us of the corrective and preventive actions documented in your letter. These actions will be examined during a subsequent inspection of your licensed program.

Your cooperation with us is appreciated.

Sincerely,

James M. Allan
