Gentlemen:

In a conversation with Mr. William Campbell, we were advised that one of the hard copy pages of our original set of comments was missing from the public document room.

For your convenience we had also enclosed our input on a standard diskette in ASCII format. Although the diskette record is complete, Mr. Campbell suggested that we re-send the hard copy also.

Should you have any questions, comments, or require our assistance in discussions, please advise either Cedric Szeplin or myself at (201) 662-0003.

Very truly yours
