ERRATUM

In answering NRC Staff's Request for Admissions a discussion of new material was inadvertently included by the typist. Please disregard the entire last half of the last paragraph of our answer to #10 on p. 3 of Intervenor's response to Staff's Request for Admissions, beginning with all sentences appearing after the word LACBWR.

While an attempt was made to white out most of the last half of the paragraph on several of the copies served the parties, this was not sufficient, as not all of the inapplicable material was whited out.

We are sorry for the inconvenience this error may have caused any of the parties.

Respectfully submitted,

Anne K. Morse
