ORDER

The October 28, 1980 letter from Hugh P. Morrison, Jr., counsel for South Carolina Public Service Authority (Santee Cooper), has been received.

Insofar as Mr. Morrison's letter provides an update on the status of negotiations between Santee Cooper and Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. regarding a tentative agreement to share ownership and planning in generating and transmission facilities, it is proper and will be considered. Insofar as the letter comments on the Department of Justice's response of October 10, 1980 or reviews or argues the facts or urges any course of action,
