Dear Alvin:

Thanks for the Roberts-Burwell paper. Interesting analysis, and it supports a view I believe correct about the value of strong and permanent operations corps.

Sorry I could not meet you for dinner the other evening--the pace of events picks up considerably with the Chairman's job.

I am going to have to withdraw from that Aachen meeting and am writing Bonnenberg now. A pity, because it would have been an interesting trip and I had planned to stop off and see the French breeder people. But it would simply be impossible for me, as Chairman, to go off at a time when we are trying to find ways to deal with our licensing crisis.

Regards,

Joseph M. Hendrie
