

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

10 CFR Part 2

Procedural Assistance in Adjudicatory Licensing Proceedings; Correction

AGENCY: U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Final Rule; Correction.

SUMMARY: The Commission corrects a typographic error in a document (45 FR 49535, July 25, 1980) amending 10 CFR Part 2, "Rules of Practice for Domestic Licensing Proceedings," by the addition of a new paragraph (c) in §2.750. The Commission corrects paragraph (c) by inserting the footnote indicator "1" after the last word in paragraph (c).

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 25, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Thomas F. Dorian, Esq., Office of the Executive Legal Director, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC. 20555 (Telephone: (301) - 492-8690).

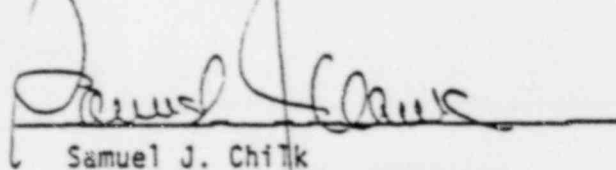

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: As part of a pilot program to help parties to NRC adjudicatory proceedings assist the Commission in arriving at its decisions, the Commission has approved new §2.750(c) which provides that except in an antitrust proceeding, in any adjudicatory proceeding on an application for a license or an amendment thereto, the presiding officer may arrange for provision of one free transcript to a party, other than the applicant, upon request by that party.

The Commission has approved this pilot program for a period of one year beginning July 25, 1980. A footnote (footnote "1") containing this information was printed in the Federal Register at the bottom of the first column on page 49537. This correction directs the public to refer to that footnote.

Dated at Washington, DC this 12th day of August 1980.
