Dear Chairman Miller:

This is to confirm our telephone conversation of this morning, in which you granted the request of the parties in the above-captioned proceedings for an extension of time, until the close of business on December 3, 1980, for the filing of reply briefs now due on November 24, 1980. Pursuant to your instructions, this letter is in lieu of any formal motion for the extension.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
