Docket No. 50-395A

ORDER

Counsel for South Carolina Public Service Authority (Santee Cooper), Hugh P. Morrison, by letter of January 14, 1981 to Samuel J. Chilk, Secretary, advised that Central Electric Cooperative (Central) and Santee Cooper have concluded a Power System Coordination Agreement (Agreement) pending approval by the REA. The Agreement provides among other things an opportunity for Central to purchase an ownership share in the Summer facility and provisions relating to transmission service.

The Commission is currently in the final stage of deciding whether or not to grant Central's petition for a finding of "significant changes." In light of Mr. Morrison's letter, the Commission would welcome comments from the participants in the "significant changes" matter and from the Department
