Your attention is called to Rule 17 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure which requires the agency to file the record with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals within 40 days after service of the petition for review. Upon the filing of the certified record, all related cases will be consolidated and a briefing schedule established.

Enclosed to counsel are clerk's memoranda setting forth certain policies of this Court. Please return the counsel of record form and the disclosure statement form within 10 days.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM K. SLATE, II
