ORDER

To ensure that the Board's directive of December 15, 1989, to avoid duplicative arguments is followed by all intervenors, in their briefs now due on or before January 24, 1990, those parties should include a statement of issues (or questions) presented. For each issue specified, there should be a reference (including LBP number or date of decision and page or paragraph number(s)) to the particular Licensing Board ruling(s) to which that issue relates. This statement of issues, which should be set forth as a separate part of the brief, will not be counted against the seventy-page limit specified in the Rules of Practice.
