Mr. Courtmanche,

This letter is a follow-up of a phone conversation with you on May 23, 1989, pertaining to a materials license under the name of Ultrasound Inc.

No licensed material was ever possessed under the authority of this license. If this license was issued, please terminate it.

I have also taken the liberty to enclose a letter from Mr. Charles McCarthy dated March 22, 1989 to Ms. Doris Foster also pertaining to this license.

Thank-you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

William J. Donovan

Dear Ms. Foster:

I am writing you to clarify the application for a material license filed by Ultrasound, Inc. submitted in October 1987. The application was referenced in a letter from Mr. Thomas K. Thompson dated December 16, 1987 as Docket No. 030-30276 and Mail Control No. 107976.

Due to contractual difficulties at the planned site, the application was allowed to lapse by not responding within the allotted time frame. Mr. Thompson was notified by telephone but a followup letter was not sent to his office. Please consider this letter to be formal notification of the withdrawal of our application.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Charles E. McCarthy
