PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS' MOTION FOR EXTENDING TIME FOR TAKING DEPOSITIONS

On August 10, 1981 PCCI requested that the Board extend the September 30, 1981 deadline for taking depositions established by the Board's order of August 3, 1981 (conference call). Illinois hereby also moves the Board to extend the deposition deadline and in support hereof adopts in full the reasoning set forth in PCCI's motion.

Illinois would also like to point out that the undersigned attorneys have responsibilities in the Attorney General's Office in addition to this litigation; it is impossible to give even the most minimal attention to those other responsibilities under the discovery schedule imposed by the Board. To place the parties under such extraordinary burdens without there being any benefits to anyone from doing so, simply does not make sense.

For all these reasons, Illinois joins PCCI in requesting that the time for taking depositions in connection with admitted contention be extended beyond September 30, 1981.

Respectfully submitted,

TYRONE C. FAHNER
Attorney General
State of Illinois
