Gentlemen:

Thank you for your letter dated January 25, 1990, informing us of the steps you have taken to correct the violations identified in our letter dated January 5, 1990.

In view of the additional information provided in your letter, we agree with your conclusion that Item 3 of our January 5, 1990 letter did not constitute a violation. This information was not available to our inspectors during the inspection.

We will adjust our records to reflect that no violation of regulatory requirements occurred with respect to Item 3 contained in our letter.

However, please note that your response regarding Items 1 and 2 is not complete in that you did not provide information as to what steps you will take to avoid further violations. The requirements for responding to the violations are outlined in the last paragraph of the Notice of Violation sent to you on January 5, 1990.

Therefore, please submit to this office within thirty days of the date of this letter a written statement containing the additional required information.

Your cooperation with us is appreciated.

Sincerely,

R. J. Caniano, Chief
