Dear Ms. Svinicki:

The U.S. Office of Government Ethics (OGE) provides the heads of each executive branch agency with year-end status reports regarding annual financial disclosure reports which are subject to OGE's certification. I am pleased to report that your agency has successfully completed the 2019 filing cycle.

Financial disclosure is the executive branch's primary tool for identifying and resolving conflicts of interest on the part of executive branch officials. Through the financial disclosure process, OGE and executive branch agencies assure the President, the Congress, and the public that officials at the highest levels of government are free from conflicts of interest. OGE thanks you, your senior leaders, and your agency's ethics officials for fully supporting OGE's review process and for making annual financial disclosure a priority.

Sincerely,

Emory A. Rounds, III
Director, Office of Government Ethics
