Dear Mr. Thompson,

"Quagmire" is the apt word that comes to mind after reading your Nov. 24th letter. Having already spent far more than a million dollars harassing me, NRC apparently chooses to dig itself deeper into the quagmire it created. How sad! Are the words "cost containment" not part of the NRC lexicon? Is it not apparent that I feel so egregiously aggrieved that I will go to the mat to hold NRC accountable for the questionable way it conducts its business and for the considerable damages done me as a result. The concept of "re-inventing government" could well become operative with this bureaucratic morass.

Your letter states it was to have been sent "Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested". Please be informed it was not sent certified mail and you will therefore not have returned to you a signed receipt. But contrary to the allegations that I did not exercise adequate management responsibility, I do not allege the same for you because of this not so minor mishap. This not so minor mishap pales by comparison with the management fiascos at Region I for which perhaps you may indeed be responsible. Is there any justifiable reason why letters to P.J. Henderson of 8/26/93 and 11/8/93 and to T.T. Martin of 10/7/93 and 11/8/93 remain unanswered to this day. Something is wrong - some procedure needs to be implemented. Should I expect you to accept management responsibilities for these deficiencies? Why can't NRC be as perfect as it expects its licensees to be?

Be assured it is not my intent to make this case a cause célèbre. But if it evolves that way, so be it. It is NRC itself, Chairman Selin, and certain NRC staff members who have more to lose than I do.
