Attn: Mr. Glen D. Brown

Dear Mr. Brown:

We are responding to your letter concerning your inspection of our company on January 4, 1982. We will address ourselves directly to the violations in numerical sequence as listed in your letter.

Violation #1 - On June 7, 1982; we advised by letter, the material Licensing Branch of the N.R.C. of our corrected address and the acquisition of a new source 3M Model 4F6S, Searial number 72456-CS137.

Violation #2 or 3 - On June 22, 1982 a telephone conversation was held with N.S.S.I. in Houston, Texas. We have now received and distributed badges to all personnel involved. Also, special reporting forms are being sent to us by N.S.S.I., and will be properly submitted to the N.R.C. and copies retained on file in our office.

Violation #4 - As of February, 1982; a regularly scheduled calibration program has been achieved with N.S.S.I. in Houston, Texas. Records are being maintained in our office.

Violations of June, 1982 information has been retroactively obtained and a file has been established in our office and henceforth will be properly maintained.
