

Hayes ✓

REPLY TO A NOTICE OF VIOLATION

December 1, 1993

VIOLATION 1

1. The nuclear medicine technologist was not given sufficient time on a daily basis to perform and document necessary tests. The nuclear medicine technologist is not a full time nuclear medicine technologist and has responsibilities in the radiology department.
2. The radiology manager has given the nuclear medicine technologist an allotted time on a daily basis in nuclear medicine to perform the required tests without disturbance. Enclosed are copies of tests done since the inspection, 10-05-93, to document compliance to this point.
3. Due to changes in ownership and management of the hospital, a new RSO on our license and the future plans of the purchase of new nuclear medicine equipment, the nuclear medicine technologist will be given greater responsibilities and more time in the nuclear medicine department.
4. Full compliance was achieved 10-06-93.

VIOLATION 2

1. The nuclear medicine technologist was not given sufficient time on a daily basis to perform and document necessary tests. The nuclear medicine technologist is not a full time nuclear medicine technologist and has responsibilities in the radiology department.
2. The radiology manager has given the nuclear medicine technologist an allotted time on a daily basis in nuclear medicine to perform the required tests without disturbance. Enclosed are copies of tests done since the inspection, 10-05-93, to document compliance to this point.
3. Due to changes in ownership and management of the hospital, a new RSO on our license and the future plans of the purchase of new nuclear medicine equipment, the nuclear medicine technologist will be given greater responsibilities and more time in the nuclear medicine department.
4. Full compliance was achieved 10-06-93.

9401240230 940112
PDR ADOCK 03011341
C PDR

DEC 06 1993

DEC 06 1993

REPLY TO A NOTICE OF VIOLATION

page 2

VIOLATION 3

1. The nuclear medicine technologist was not given sufficient time on a daily basis to perform and document necessary tests. The nuclear medicine technologist is not a full time nuclear medicine technologist and has responsibilities in the radiology department.
2. The radiology manager has given the nuclear medicine technologist an allotted time on a daily basis in nuclear medicine to perform the required tests without disturbance. Enclosed are copies of tests done since the inspection, 10-05-93, to document compliance to this point.
3. Due to changes in ownership and management of the hospital, a new RSO on our license and the future plans of the purchase of new nuclear medicine equipment, the nuclear medicine technologist will be given greater responsibilities and more time in the nuclear medicine department.
4. Full compliance was achieved 10-06-93.

VIOLATION 4

1. The nuclear medicine technologist was not given sufficient time on a daily basis to perform and document necessary tests. The nuclear medicine technologist is not a full time nuclear medicine technologist and has responsibilities in the radiology department.
2. The radiology manager has given the nuclear medicine technologist an allotted time on a daily basis in nuclear medicine to perform the required tests without disturbance. Enclosed are copies of tests done since the inspection, 10-05-93, to document compliance to this point.
3. Due to changes in ownership and management of the hospital, a new RSO on our license and the future plans of the purchase of new nuclear medicine equipment, the nuclear medicine technologist will be given greater responsibilities and more time in the nuclear medicine department.
4. Full compliance was achieved 10-06-93.

REPLY TO A NOTICE OF VIOLATION

page 3

VIOLATION 5

1. A letter regarding the name change was sent to Parkland Health Center administration and then forwarded to the legal department of the new owner, Christian Health Systems, St. Louis, Missouri.
2. Enclosed is a copy of a letter dated 10-06-93 regarding the proposed license amendments one of which includes the Parkland Health Center name change.
3. NRC regulations will be followed in the event a subsequent change in ownership occurs.
4. Full compliance will be achieved when our amended license is received.

Sincerely,

William D. Blair
Senior Executive Officer

Ken D. Saith, MD RSO