Medical Nuclear Safety, NMSS

SUBJECT: COMO TECH INSPECTION SERVICE

This is to inform you that Como Tech Inspection Service (Como Tech) submitted two fees regarding Quality Assurance (QA) Program Approval No. 0669; $320.00 for an amendment and $280.00 for a renewal. However, only the amendment fee was required.

As a result of correspondence between Como Tech and the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (Enclosures 1, 2, and 4), QA Program Approval No. 0669 was amended to reflect Como Tech's change of address (Enclosure 6). Because the amendment action occurred within two months of the established QA Program expiration date of March 31, 1994, the expiration date was extended to February 28, 1999.

However, before the amendment action was taken, NRC notified Como Tech of the impending expiration of QA Program Approval No. 0669 (Enclosure 3). Como Tech responded with a request for renewal of QA Program No. 0669 and included a renewal fee of $280.00 (Enclosure 5). This renewal fee is not required and should be returned to Como Tech.
