In addition to the procedures proposed by the staff in the case of a disagreement with OI's investigative findings of willfulness, when OI does not request Commission consultation:

1. The staff should document in the case file materials the nature of the disagreement with OI's findings, how it was resolved, and the concurrence of OI in going ahead with the enforcement action without Commission consultation.
2. Second, the enforcement notice (EN) should state clearly the nature of the disagreement, and there should be an extended EN notification period of five (5) days for the Commission.
