Dear Sirs:

The purpose of this letter is to advise you that the operating areas of the Fish and Wildlife Service's Ecological Services Field Offices in Texas have been realigned. This new alignment will help the Service to be more responsive and to conduct business more economically and effectively. The attachments are: (1) a map depicting the relative boundaries of each office, and (2) a list of counties for which each of the Field Offices is responsible.

To make this transition as smooth as possible, and to assure continuity, current ongoing work shall be completed by the office which initiated it. This change only affects new work. If you have questions, please contact this office or the Ecological Services Field Supervisor at one of the following locations:

- Field Supervisor, Ecological Services
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
