Dear Dr. Griem:

As you complete your term as a member of the Advisory Committee on Medical Uses of Isotopes (ACMUI), I want to express the Commission's sincere appreciation for the service and support you have provided to the agency during your 16 years as a member of the Committee. Your knowledge and experience have been of great assistance to us in attempting to resolve the difficult and sometimes contentious issues that arise in regulating the medical uses of isotopes.

I can assure you that your willingness to give your time and energy to an effort that is important to the progress of the Nation's nuclear regulatory program has been most welcome and is highly valued by the Commission and the NRC staff.

Sincerely,

Ivan Selin
