Ms. Joan A. McKeown
146 Hirst Avenue
East Lansdowne, Pennsylvania 19050

Dear Ms. McKeown:

As you complete your term as a member of the Advisory Committee on Medical Uses of Isotopes (ACMUI), I want to express, on behalf of the Commission, our sincere appreciation for your willingness to accept the challenges and burdens of ACMUI membership. During the four years that you have been a member of the Committee, you have contributed substantially to the Commission's understanding of the difficult and sometimes contentious issues that arise in regulating the medical uses of isotopes.

I can assure you that your commitment of time and energy to ACMUI has had important consequences for the progress of the Nation's nuclear regulatory program.

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. Marcus:

As you complete your term as a member of the Advisory Committee on Medical Uses of Isotopes (ACMUI), I want to express, on behalf of the Commission, our appreciation for your willingness to accept the challenges and burdens of ACMUI membership. During the four years that you have been a member of the Committee, you have contributed substantially to the Commission's understanding of the professional community's views on NRC regulations governing medical uses of isotopes.

I can assure you that your commitment of time and energy to ACMUI has had important consequences for the progress of the Nation's nuclear regulatory program.

Sincerely,

Ivan Selin
