COMMENTS

Since you have not responded to the Statement of Estimated Fees for your pending Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request, I am assuming you have no interest in our office processing your request. However, I am enclosing for your information and use a computer printout listing of NRC records which are publicly available on the use of concrete casks for storage of spent nuclear fuel. Once you have had the opportunity to review this printout, you may contact the NRC's Public Document Room (PDR) to obtain copies of any records you feel may be of interest to you at a cost of $0.06 per page. I am enclosing instructions to assist you in contacting the PDR. Also, for your information, the NRC has established Local Public Document Rooms (LPDR's) in libraries near
