In the Matter of
COMMONWEALTH EDISON COMPANY
(Byron Station, Units 1 and 2)
Docket Nos. 50-454 and 50-455

Dear Mr. Rose:

I am just in receipt of the League's proposed interrogatories to the Staff and motion for production of documents filed under cover letter of October 22, 1982. I will advise you shortly to what extent, if any, the Staff is prepared to answer the League interrogatories on a voluntary basis without the necessity for obtaining a Licensing Board ruling as otherwise required pursuant to 10 C.F.R. § 2.720(h)(2)(ii). Any volunteered Staff interrogatory answers, including pertinent objections thereto, would be provided in accordance with the procedural schedule established in the Board's August 30, 1982 Memorandum and Order. The Staff will file a formal written response to the separate motion for the production of documents in accordance with the schedule established in 10 C.F.R. § 2.730(c).

Sincerely,

Steven C. Goldberg
Counsel for NRC Staff
