Dear Mr. Ravenscroft:

This is in regard to your December 4, 1990, facsimile request for extension of our approval to use certain East Coast seaports for transient shipments of spent reactor fuel. As you point out, our existing approval to use these seaports for transient shipments expires prior to the time when some of them are scheduled for use during an imminent shipment. Your notification of that shipment was contained in your letter, IEC-4, dated November 11, 1990.

The ports to be used according to the schedule outlined in your November 11, 1990 letter are judged to continue to be acceptable as ports of call for spent fuel shipments. Accordingly, approval of their use for such shipments is extended from December 31, 1990 through January 31, 1991.

Should you require additional information or have questions concerning this matter, please contact Russel R. Kentschler of my staff at (301) 492-0381.

Sincerely,
Original Signed by
